Here are the results of Gun Control Day 2008:

A-76A, mandatory storage, passes 95-35.

A-829, child operated firearms, passes 86-46.

A-3447, expands definition of AP ammo, passes 85-40.

A-3451, expands COBIS, passes 79-49.

A-8700B, creates firearms disqualifications registry, passes 124-0 with no debate.

A-2868, disguised guns, passes 83-46.

A-6525A, gun dealer liability. Phil Boyle offered amendment, found not germane to bill, appealed decision. Amendment fails 83-52. Bill passes 85-53.

A-9819A, microstamping, passes 90-43.

A-7331A, semi-auto prohibition, passes 85-46.

A-2772A, .50 prohibition, passes 85-49.

The pro-gun side was much more animated than in previous years. Debate and voting took over 3 hours.

Speaking on the bills: Brian Kolb, Marc Butler, Greg Ball, Mike Cole, Dan Burling.

Explained their vote: Nancy Calhoun, Dan Burling, Cliff Crouch.

The only antis to speak on the bills were the sponsors. Michele Schimel was far and away the most skill with her prepared speech/diatribes.

Steve Englebright, Charles Levine, Pat Eddington explained

their vote on A-9819A.

Matt Titone explained his vote on A-7331A.

I recorded the proceedings and will post the audio on our website in the near future.

Unrelated, A-10154A, requires state agencies and certain covered authorities to purchase handguns from "responsible" suppliers, was amended and resubmitted to Governmental Operations.
